this end, he went on a shanti yatra (peace March) of 15 days through the maharashtra along with acharya muni sushil kumar and swami chidanand, addressing to large groups of people in 35 different places on the road from mumbai to nagpur. a recent book, the most influential 500 Muslims of the 2009 george universitytown, Washington dc, appointed him "spiritual ambassador of Islam." His approach, underlines the book, is "popular among Indians, both Muslim and non-Muslim. Born in azamgarh in 1925, maulana was educated in a traditional seminary. the award was awarded to a ceremony by Dr. alexander bessmertnykh, president of the world council of former foreign ministers (wcfm.) first islamic library platform that is completely compatible with the iphone voice over feature for blind. felicitationsmaulana wahiduddin khan, who is well traveled, and the recipient of numerous national and international awards, made a great contribution to world peace in its tireless campaign to avoid the danger of a nuclear conflict between different countries. this magazine, composed entirely of its articles, quickly acquired a wide rangethroughout the world of language urdu and e e done done much to make people understand the peaceful face of Islam, to awaken in Muslims a new awareness of their social responsibilities and to promote positive thinking and action. His quest for knowledge can be gauged by the fact that, even today he constantly questions all visitors coming to him, so that he may gain fresh knowledge from interacting with them.Well-versed in Traditional Disciplines and Modern SciencesAs a result of his quest and resulting research, he became well versed in both classical Islamic learning and modern science. On that occasion, he was awarded the Demiurgus Peace International Award by the Nuclear Disarmament Forum AG. Known for his Gandhian views, he considers non-violence as the only method to achieve success.Internationally recognized for his contributions to world peace, he has received, among others, the Demiurgus Peace International Award, the Padma Bhushan, the Rajiv Gandhi National Sadbhavna Award and the National Citizen's Award. Here he spent six years, completing this course and graduating in 1944.From childhood he unconsciously loved to live in nature. The centre is giving to the people of the world a sustainable message of truth, peace and spirituality and training them based on the universal principles of life. Let us now turn to Khan's own distinct interpretation of how Islam can be understood in the modern world, an interpretation which claims to be both authentic and at the same time relevant in the present day context.The MissionUpon completion of his research, in 1955, he published his first book, Naye Ahd Ke Darwaze Par, or On the Threshold of a New Era. The English version continues to be published under the title of Spiritual Message till today.An Ambassador of PeaceIn 1992, when the atmosphere was so highly charged throughout India due to the Babri Mosque incident, he felt the necessity to convince people of the need to restore peace and amity the two communities, so that the country can once again walk the path of progress. Although his brother, abdul muhit khan, his cousin iqbal ahmad sohal and other members of his family were sent to Western-style schools for their formation, the young wahiduddin was enrolled in a traditional Islamic seminary, the Islamic madrasatul islahi, to you will be mir, near azamgarh in 1938 to receive religious education. continuing to write since then, he has written over 200 books. his book, "god abs" was accepted as the standard Islamic position on modern thinking and was incorporated into the curricula of universities in over six Arab countries. As it appears from its name, the organization aims to promote and strengthen the culture of peace through mind-based spirituality. Since then, observation and reflection have become the seeds that had to develop in him a scientific and analytical fold of the mind, which he applies effectively until today both in the religious and secular field. After graduating in this traditional Islamic learning seminar, he began to interact with people to begin his life, considering that his training is complete. for more information, see the developer's privacy policy. political.
